

1st Annual Middle School Boot Camp

August 14-18th 2017 9am-12pm @ St. Edmond's Academy

For incoming 6th-8th grade students- Co-Ed

Price- $150

Students will switch between each 80 minute class. Features of each class include:

- Lancer English
 - Taught By Joe O'Brien - English Teacher at Salesianum School. 2nd year masters student at Villanova University.
 - Topics to be covered:
 - Reading Comprehension
 - Listening Skills
 - Note taking
 - Grammar
 - Writing 5 Paragraph Essays
 - Last 5 Chapters of St. Ed's summer reading book The Boy who Harnessed the Wind. This is one of the summer reading options for St. Edmond's students entering 6th-8th grade. (Students are required to have read the entire book by the beginning of class and bring the paper copy book with them to class)

- Becoming an Independent Learner - Laying a firm foundation for success in high school
 - Christine Hrinak- Educational Support at Salesianum Teacher. Master's degree from Illinois University
 - Andrew Ellis- Social Studies Teacher at St. Edmond's Academy. Certified in Universal Design for Learning.
 - Study Habits
 - Organizational Skills
 - Time Management
 - Test taking Strategies